PRICE 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

In discussing the coming spring meeting at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Manager Charles F. Price has this to say: "The coming meeting, from all indications, will be the best held at Churchill Downs in years, even considering the splendid meeting which we had last year, which broke all records for the local track. Last year we conflicted a day with Nashville, which, while seemingly a small matter in itself, lost us a few stables of horses, and possibly half a dozen bookmakers, who, as a matter of convenience, jumped from Nashville to Chicago or St. Louis, rather than remain idle for a few days. This will be obviated during the coming meeting, because Nashville will close on Saturday and Louisville will begin on the following Monday. In other words, the horses will come up the line from Memphis to Nashville and then to Louisville and follow on up the line to Latonia. Last year was a bad one in the way of sick horses, Louisville having its full share of the latter, but so far there is not a sick horse at the Downs and there are about 200 at the track at present. The coming Kentucky Derby promises now to be one of the best in its history as regards class, among the eligibles being the crack English Lad, Proceeds, Conjuror, Ed Tierney and others. The Kentucky Oaks is also unusually promising, embracing among its eligibles Lady Amelia, Memories and other good ones. Special efforts will be made also to attract the jumpers, a class of racing that proved so popular at the last meeting. The steeplechase course, which horsemen say is now one of the best and safest in the country, will be improved by the addition of another jump and the replacing of others, which will give a better and more spectacular view from the grandstand. It is also expected that more bookmakers will be in the ring than ever before, as the money handled at the last spring meet was greater in volume than formerly, and this always attracts the layers of odds."

Information has been received at Memphis to the effect that the better part of the racing string of Burns & Waterhouse will be shipped from San Francisco to that city early in February. The Californians are represented in the Tennessee Derby by Rockaway and Toledo, and it is the present intention of Charles Patterson, the Burns & Waterhouse trainer, to ship Rockaway there. Patterson has always been partial to Memphis racing. It was there that he achieved his first success by developing the crack race mare Suisun. Then followed Ornament, May Hempstead, Prince of Melbourne, McMeekin, Hamburg, Howland and many other such. Whether the outside world is willing to believe it or not, Memphians will always give Patterson credit for developing Hamburg. There are those who saw the papers that will testify to Patterson writing to John E. Madden during the spring of 1897, stating: "I've got a world beater," meaning Hamburg. Patterson was training all of Madden's colts that year. Madden replied by giving his friend a bill of sale for one-fourth interest in Hamburg for a cash consideration of $1. Madden evidently regarded Hamburg as a joke, but to the argument that later arose over that one-fourth interest is attributed the breach which resulted in separation between Madden and Patterson later in the year, after Hamburg had really proved that he was a world beater.

"Gene" Leigh is the man of the hour just now in French racing circles," says jockey Shields, on whom Leigh had second call last season. "It is not putting it too strong to say that Leigh is the most popular trainer in France. He trains a public stable and has horses of two dozen or more owners in his stable. Among these are numbered some of the most influential owners in the country. Leigh has about 150 horses in training. They are divided between jumpers and flat racers. Horses trained by him won 104 jumping races this season, and 68 on the flat. He is still a figure in the selling races. It is nothing uncommon for Leigh to send three or four horses out in one race and come back with only one, or, on the other hand, send one and come back with three—one bid up and one claimed. He is just as popular with the public as with the owners and trainers. Any horse that he starts that has any sort of a chance on form is sure to be made favorite. He will not come to America this winter, but will take a trip through Spain and Italy. I have heard a rumor since coming to New York that Leigh might not get a license next year. Of course, I don't know anything about it, but I don't see how there can be any truth in the rumor. He has the best people in France with him, and I know they have every confidence in him. I guess it is one of those rumors that is without foundation."

J. C. Milam has closed a deal with Ed Frazier for a quartet of yearlings, but the price paid is kept a business secret. They are as follows:

Bay colt, by St. Maxim—Asterita, by Potentate.

Bay colt, by Dr. MacBride—Sweepalong, by Longflight.

Brown filly, by G. W. Johnson—The Broom, by Himyar.

Chestnut filly, by Dr. Hasbrouck—Flo II., by King Galop.

John Rodegap has arrived at Lexington with his racing stable and is now quartered at the old Kentucky Association track for the winter.

Colonel John Overton, first presiding judge at the Memphis Jockey Club's meeting back in 1880, and one of the founders of organized racing in the south, died at his home in Memphis last Friday night. The deceased was a member of one of the leading families in the state, and his grandfather once owned thoroughbreds in partnership with General Andrew Jackson. Colonel Overton renounced his allegiance to the turf several years ago, and since joining the church he never visited a race course. The estate is a very valuable one.

There is a doubt as to whether Charles Thorpe will return to America this winter. Thorpe had intended sailing from Havre on the second of this month, but his departure was delayed, and now news comes of the illness of his wife. It is not known how seriously ill Mrs. Thorpe is, but there is a possibility of her poor health resulting in the jockey spending the winter season abroad.

M. L. Hayman will go to New Orleans next week, with his entire stable, including Orthodox, winner of the Grand Consolation Stakes at Benning's. Jockey Treubel will ride for Hayman at New Orleans, and the prospects of the stable are made considerably brighter by this connection. Treubel is one of the developments of the closing days of the season, and, in the opinion of many close observers, is destined to make a name for himself.

Winner—B. g. by Hanover—Ambulance (trained by R. Tucker). Went to post at 2:00. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Hands Across was lucky at the start in getting off with the leaders, raced Carraher and Reckoner into submission in the first half and had enough in reserve at the end to stall off a challenge from Badger. The latter was crowded back at the start and was in a pocket until on the turn out of the backstretch, but finished fast and was wearing the winner down at the end. Anti Trust was outfooted all the way and met with no mishaps. Peeper made up ground in the last quarter. Burning Glass was given an easy ride. Russell Garth got away tangled up.

Winner—Ch. c. by Onondaga—Patty of Cork (trained by R. E. Watkins). Went to post at 2:31. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Foxy Kane broke from the outside and was outrun for the first half, but Treubel rode a patient race, came through on the outside in the last furlong, and finishing fast, was drawing away from his field in the last sixteenth. Floyd K. began slowly, but made up a lot of ground and finished with a rush. He will do better over a longer route. Van Ness tired after racing up to the leaders at the turn into the homestretch. Frank Bell and Allista were used up in setting the early pace and quit badly. Autumn Leaves was cut down on both hind legs.

Scratched—43146 Tioga, 102; 43155 Mrs. Frank Foster, 99. Overweights—Allista, 4 1/2 pounds. Foxy Kane, show, 7 to 10. Floyd K., show, 5 to 1. Van Ness, show, 1 to 2. Frank Bell, show, 1 to 4.

Winner—Br. g. by George Kinney—Princess (Princess Louise) (trained by A. Zimmer). Went to post at 3:01. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Little Jack Horner broke his field, raced Escalera into submission in the first half and drew away with a rush in the stretch. Sea Shark saved ground at the turn into the homestretch and, finishing on the inside, came very fast in the last furlong and outgamed Demurrer. Demurrer was outrun all the way, but about ran his race. Escalera and Bountiful showed speed, but tired. Ailyar was sore when going to the post.

Lev Dorsey and Dan McKenna fought it out all through the last furlong, the pair bumping one another several times. Lev Dorsey proved the gamer and got his nose in front in the last couple of strides. Dan McKenna showed the most early speed and set the pace under restraint. Huzzah closed up fast while rounding the far turn, but tired after getting to the leader and swerved over to the inside in the last twenty yards. Mauser finished fast on the extreme outside. Charley Thompson tired after going a half mile and was eased up when beaten.

Siddons ran under restraint for the first mile, then moved up to Trocadero while rounding the far turn, took the lead quickly and was only cantering at the end. Little Elkin was on the outside for the entire trip and outstayed Trocadero and Adelante in the stretch struggle. Trocadero was going easy when he bolted over to the inside at the furlong post and this probably beat him for second place. Adelante tired and quit in the last quarter.

King Croker began slowly and had to go all around his field to get up, then caught the leaders tiring at the end, but had to be hard ridden to stall off Myron Dale. The latter closed a big gap and finished fast. Mordella was much used up racing with Agnes Brennan and Glenflo in the first part of the race, saved ground at the turn into the homestretch, but tired when the final drive came. WARNING TO HANDBOOK PATRONS

As there will be no more race results sent over the tickers, the public will have to depend upon information as given out by agents of the different handbooks. Players should do business with reliable agents, as the unreliable ones will be tempted to accept bets on the losers after they receive the winner over the telephone. If a bet is placed late the player should note the exact time and compare with the "off" time in Daily Racing Form, and if you think the result was already known to the layers write a letter, giving name of agent, location and name of agent's principal, and the undersigned will endeavor to adjust the matter.

VOL. IX. NO. 300.

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1903.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

In discussing the coming spring meeting at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Manager Charles F. Price has this to say: "The coming meeting, from all indications, will be the best held at Churchill Downs in years, even considering the splendid meeting which we had last year, which broke all records for the local track. Last year we conflicted a day with Nashville, which, while seemingly a small matter in itself, lost us a few stables of horses, and possibly half a dozen bookmakers, who, as a matter of convenience, jumped from Nashville to Chicago or St. Louis, rather than remain idle for a few days. This will be obviated during the coming meeting, because Nashville will close on Saturday and Louisville will begin on the following Monday. In other words, the horses will come up the line from Memphis to Nashville and then to Louisville and follow on up the line to Latonia. Last year was a bad one in the way of sick horses, Louisville having its full share of the latter, but so far there is not a sick horse at the Downs and there are about 200 at the track at present. The coming Kentucky Derby promises now to be one of the best in its history as regards class, among the eligibles being the crack English Lad, Proceeds, Conjuror, Ed Tierney and others. The Kentucky Oaks is also unusually promising, embracing among its eligibles Lady Amelia, Memories and other good ones. Special efforts will be made also to attract the jumpers, a class of racing that proved so popular at the last meeting. The steeplechase course, which horsemen say is now one of the best and safest in the country, will be improved by the addition of another jump and the replacing of others, which will give a better and more spectacular view from the grandstand. It is also expected that more bookmakers will be in the ring than ever before, as the money handled at the last spring meet was greater in volume than formerly, and this always attracts the layers of odds."

Information has been received at Memphis to the effect that the better part of the racing string of Burns & Waterhouse will be shipped from San Francisco to that city early in February. The Californians are represented in the Tennessee Derby by Rockaway and Toledo, and it is the present intention of Charles Patterson, the Burns & Waterhouse trainer, to ship Rockaway there. Patterson has always been partial to Memphis racing. It was there that he achieved his first success by developing the crack race mare Suisun. Then followed Ornament, May Hempstead, Prince of Melbourne, McMeekin, Hamburg, Howland and many other such. Whether the outside world is willing to believe it or not, Memphians will always give Patterson credit for developing Hamburg. There are those who saw the papers that will testify to Patterson writing to John E. Madden during the spring of 1897, stating: "I've got a world beater," meaning Hamburg. Patterson was training all of Madden's colts that year. Madden replied by giving his friend a bill of sale for one-fourth interest in Hamburg for a cash consideration of $1. Madden evidently regarded Hamburg as a joke, but to the argument that later arose over that one-fourth interest is attributed the breach which resulted in separation between Madden and Patterson later in the year, after Hamburg had really proved that he was a world beater.

"Gene" Leigh is the man of the hour just now in French racing circles," says jockey Shields, on whom Leigh had second call last season. "It is not putting it too strong to say that Leigh is the most popular trainer in France. He trains a public stable and has horses of two dozen or more owners in his stable. Among these are numbered some of the most influential owners in the country. Leigh has about 150 horses in training. They are divided between jumpers and flat racers. Horses trained by him won 104 jumping races this season, and 68 on the flat. He is still a figure in the selling races. It is nothing uncommon for Leigh to send three or four horses out in one race and come back with only one, or, on the other hand, send one and come back with three—one bid up and one claimed. He is just as popular with the public as with the owners and trainers. Any horse that he starts that has any sort of a chance on form is sure to be made favorite. He will not come to America this winter, but will take a trip through Spain and Italy. I have heard a rumor since coming to New York that Leigh might not get a license next year. Of course, I don't know anything about it, but I don't see how there can be any truth in the rumor. He has the best people in France with him, and I know they have every confidence in him. I guess it is one of those rumors that is without foundation."

J. C. Milam has closed a deal with Ed Frazier for a quartet of yearlings, but the price paid is kept a business secret. They are as follows:

Bay colt, by St. Maxim—Asterita, by Potentate.

Bay colt, by Dr. MacBride—Sweepalong, by Longflight.

Brown filly, by G. W. Johnson—The Broom, by Himyar.

Chestnut filly, by Dr. Hasbrouck—Flo II., by King Galop.

John Rodegap has arrived at Lexington with his racing stable and is now quartered at the old Kentucky Association track for the winter.

Colonel John Overton, first presiding judge at the Memphis Jockey Club's meeting back in 1880, and one of the founders of organized racing in the south, died at his home in Memphis last Friday night. The deceased was a member of one of the leading families in the state, and his grandfather once owned thoroughbreds in partnership with General Andrew Jackson. Colonel Overton renounced his allegiance to the turf several years ago, and since joining the church he never visited a race course. The estate is a very valuable one.

There is a doubt as to whether Charles Thorpe will return to America this winter. Thorpe had intended sailing from Havre on the second of this month, but his departure was delayed, and now news comes of the illness of his wife. It is not known how seriously ill Mrs. Thorpe is, but there is a possibility of her poor health resulting in the jockey spending the winter season abroad.

M. L. Hayman will go to New Orleans next week, with his entire stable, including Orthodox, winner of the Grand Consolation Stakes at Benning. Jockey Treubel will ride for Hayman at New Orleans, and the prospects of the stable are made considerably brighter by this connection. Treubel is one of the developments of the closing days of the season, and, in the opinion of many close observers, is destined to make a name for himself.

Winner—B. g. by Hanover—Ambulance (trained by R. Tucker). Went to post at 2:00. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Hands Across was lucky at the start in getting off with the leaders, raced Carraher and Reckoner into submission in the first half and had enough in reserve at the end to stall off a challenge from Badger. The latter was crowded back at the start and was in a pocket until on the turn out of the backstretch, but finished fast and was wearing the winner down at the end. Anti Trust was outfooted all the way and met with no mishaps. Peeper made up ground in the last quarter. Burning Glass was given an easy ride. Russell Garth got away tangled up.

Winner—Ch. c. by Onondaga—Patty of Cork (trained by R. E. Watkins). Went to post at 2:31. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Foxy Kane broke from the outside and was outrun for the first half, but Treubel rode a patient race, came through on the outside in the last furlong, and finishing fast, was drawing away from his field in the last sixteenth. Floyd K. began slowly, but made up a lot of ground and finished with a rush. He will do better over a longer route. Van Ness tired after racing up to the leaders at the turn into the homestretch. Frank Bell and Allista were used up in setting the early pace and quit badly. Autumn Leaves was cut down on both hind legs.

Little Jack Horner outbroke his field, raced Escalera into submission in the first half and drew away with a rush in the stretch. Sea Shark saved ground at the turn into the homestretch and, finishing on the inside, came very fast in the last furlong and outgamed Demurrer. Demurrer was outrun all the way, but about ran his race. Escalera and Bountiful showed speed, but tired. Ailyar was sore when going to the post.

Lev Dorsey and Dan McKenna fought it out all through the last furlong, the pair bumping one another several times. Lev Dorsey proved the gamer and got his nose in front in the last couple of strides. Dan McKenna showed the most early speed and set the pace under restraint. Huzzah closed up fast while rounding the far turn, but tired after getting to the leader and swerved over to the inside in the last twenty yards. Mauser finished fast on the extreme outside. Charley Thompson tired after going a half mile and was eased up when beaten.

Winner—B. h. by Wadsworth—Modjeska, by Buckmaster (trained by T. H. Stevens; Went to post at 4:05. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Siddons ran under restraint for the first mile, then moved up to Trocadero while rounding the far turn, took the lead quickly and was only cantering at the end. Little Elkin was on the outside for the entire trip and outstayed Trocadero and Adelante in the stretch struggle. Trocadero was going easy when he bolted over to the inside at the furlong post and this probably beat him for second place. Adelante tired and quit in the last quarter.

Winner—Ch. c. by Kingston—Wantage (trained by J. P. Mayberry).
Went to post at 4:40. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second easily. King Croker began slowly and had to go all around his field to get up, then caught the leaders tiring at the end, but had to be hard ridden to stall off Myron Dale. The latter closed a big gap and finished fast. Mordella was much used up racing with Agnes Brennan and Glenflo in the first part of the race, saved ground at the turn into the homestretch, but tired when the final drive came. Agnes Brennan tired and quit in the last furlong. Julia Junkin was outrun all the way and was sore when going to the post. Glenflo showed early speed, but tired after going a half.

WARNING TO HANDBOOK PATRONS

As there will be no more race results sent over the tickers, the public will have to depend upon information as given out by agents of the different handbooks. Players should do business with reliable agents, as the unreliable ones will be tempted to accept bets on the losers after they receive the winner over the telephone. If a bet is placed late the player should note the exact time and compare with the "off" time in Daily Racing Form, and if you think the result was already known to the layers write a letter, giving name of agent, location and name of agent's principal, and the undersigned will endeavor to adjust the matter.

Winner—B. g, by Brutus—Constellation (trained by F. Hubbard).
Went to post at 2:05. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Constellation easily ran into the lead at the far turn and, thereafter coming home alone, was much the best. Dora I, on the inside and in the deep going, was outrun early but, closing up fast at the end, was second best. Bee Rosewater closed up rapidly on the last turn and appeared good for second place, but tired in the final drive. Evander essayed to make the running and after a brief display of early speed, fell away badly in the last quarter. Snark made up considerable ground after getting away poorly.

Winner—Ch. c, by St. George—Trophy (trained by T. G. Ferguson).
Went to post at 2:31. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Lord Wadsworth, away in the lead, won all the way without ever being extended and is evidently a superior class colt. Ebony, away poorly, steadily improved his position, finishing fast on the inside in the heavy footing and ran a great race. Andrew B. Cook moved up fast when turning for home in an effort to overhaul the winner and tired slightly in the final drive and should improve. Waterspout followed Lord Wadsworth closely for half the distance, showed a fine burst of speed and held on gamely in the stretch run. T. J. Cox, still short and a good looker, ran forwardly for the first quarter. Dundreary, a big lumbering colt not nearly fit, ran a steady and improving race and is worth remembering. Potrero Grande is a good looker and will be heard from.
Overweights—Dundreary, 3 pounds; Potrero Grande, 1; Hogarth, 5.
Lord Wadsworth, show, 1 to 2. Ebony, show, 1 to 2. Andrew B. Cook, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. h, by Tiger—Genette Edwards (trained by C. M. Hollenback).
Went to post at 2:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Cougar ran in astoundingly improved form, held on in second position for nearly a mile before he took up the running, being never headed afterward and winning with something in reserve. Veterano, always in the deep going, trailed to the backstretch, where he moved up fast and steadily improved his position. Dupont was evidently handicapped by the puppy going and did not run his race, always held a prominent position and seemed like winning when straightened for home, but unexpectedly tired in the closing drive. Allopath loomed up dangerously on the far turn, but failed to stay in the final drive. Past Master opened a wide gap on his field in the early running and ran a surprisingly fast mile for him.
Overweights—Myriad Dancer, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Darebin—Fekukah (trained by W. Short).
Went to post 3:26. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Epicure trailed in closely behind the pacemaker, moving into the lead when straightened for home, but Sheehan, through riding an overconfident race, was nearly caught napping at the end. Ahumada, not quite keyed up for such a bruising race, ran lapped on the winner to the stretch turn, where he lost ground by coming wide, but began to make up ground fast in the closing drive and just failed to get up. Leader, handicapped by the track conditions, ran away back to the last quarter, where he closed up with a rush. Peter J. made the running for five furlongs before he retired and is an extremely fast horse that will hold his own with the best in sprint races.
Scratched—42553 Daisy Green, 107.
Overweights—Incubator, 3 pounds.
Epicure, show, out. Ahumada, show, 4 to 5. Leader, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 2:44, 4:49, 1:14, 1:21.
Winner—Ch. g, by Rey del Sierras—Jessie R. (trained by J. C. Nealon).
Went to post at 3:54. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second handily. Royal Rogue got away slowly, but quickly raced into a contending position and held it to the stretch, where he came through on the inside and in a long and well sustained drive home, just got up to win under Burns' most vigorous efforts. Beau Ormonde had no mishaps, but Bullman may have sent him to the front too early in the race, which, combined with an unnecessary wide stretch turn, beat him. He ran a fine race, but is an unlucky horse. Arabo trailed closely on the heels of the leaders and moved up fast after being straightened for home, tiring however, unexpectedly in the last few strides. Muresca forced the pace to the stretch where she fell away. Glennevis held a forward position for nearly six furlongs and ran a surprisingly good race. Whiskey King trailed his field closely for three furlongs, then retired and can do much better.
Overweights—Glennevis, 3 pounds.

Time, 2:51, 5:04, 1:17, 1:41 1/2.
Winner—B. c, by St. Carlo—Orellana (trained by C. W. Chappell).
Went to post at 4:18. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Caronal trailed back in the ruck within striking distance to the stretch, where he closed up with a rush and won going away with a lot in reserve. Illoaho held a forward position from the start and at the end finished fast, just getting up in the last stride for second place. Forest King made a premature move on the backstretch to dispose of the non-staying pacemaker and ran into an apparently safe lead when turning for home, but tired badly at the end. Colonel Van, after getting away poorly, went around on the outside of the field into the lead in the first half and held sway for six furlongs, but failed to stay. Captivate showed a lot of speed for six furlongs.
Scratched—(43166) Lord Melbourne, 101.
Overweights—Rio Chico, 3 pounds.
Caronal, show, 2 to 5. Illoaho, show, 3 to 2. Forest King, show, 1 to 3. Colonel Van, show, 2 to 5.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

During his recent visit to Nashville, Enoch Wishard sold to J. W. Russwurm, secretary of Cumberland Park, two promising two-year-olds that have never been raced. One is a St. George colt called Protection, for which Wishard paid $600 as a yearling, and the other is Clyde, an imported horse by the English stallion Clyde—Miss Jumbo II., which cost $1,600 as a weanling. They both went amiss at Nashville last spring. The colts will be trained for 1904. Scott Harlan will have Clyde in charge. Protection will be handled by John Ferris. Mr. Russwurm has also purchased from Wishard Arrow, for breeding purposes. She started thirty-seven times in England and was never outside the money. Arrow may be bred to The Commoner. Lady of the West, ch. m., 8, by Chorister—Daphne, owned by John Ferris, is another mare to join the secretary's band of matrons. Mr. Russwurm purchased her at the close of last season. The Lady is now in foal to Handcuff, a son of Hanover—Black Maria.

The racing stable of H. J. Perry, including besides the good mare Coruscate, Mandamus, Lode Star and Bourbon King, has arrived at Cumberland Park from Cincinnati. The string will remain at Nashville a few days and then go to New Orleans for the winter campaign. Mr. Perry was on the Canadian circuit most of the season, where his horses were fairly successful. Coruscate was probably one of the best mares that raced across the border. She is the holder of the Canadian record for one mile, having negotiated the distance in 1:38½ at Fort Erie in August. Perry purchased her from Jules Garson for $4,000.

Word comes from Hot Springs that work is progressing on the new track there, and that a score of additional workmen have been put to work. There are now 500 stalls for occupation, while the foundation of the stand is laid and the fences are being put up. Evidently the promoters are making plans to present a real track to the Western Jockey Club stewards when the next meeting of that body is held in January.

Philip Chinn has bought privately at a good price of Matt Simpson, the following six weanlings:

Bay colt, by The Pepper—Antidote, sister to Anthracite.

Chestnut filly (sister to Frances M.), by Cayuga—Iron Mistress.

Bay colt, by Onondaga—Marie Decca.

Bay filly, by Cayuga—Purity.

Brown filly, by Griffon—Becky Sharpe.

Chestnut colt, by Cayuga—Offering, by Onondaga.

This constitutes Simpson's entire crop of weanlings for 1903.

J. W. Brooks, manager of the Ascot track at Los Angeles, says: "We will positively open on the 24th. Everything will be in readiness before that date and there will be racing at Ascot Park the day before Christmas, rain or shine. The stakes have filled better than I expected. There are more than 700 entries, including some of the best horses in the country. There will be a splendid class of riders, including O'Neill, DeSouza, Odom, T. Burns, Troxler, Redfern, Wonderly and others. The track will be in the best possible condition and we expect to have it as fast as any in the United States for the opening day."

Dave Gideon announces that he will have about thirty horses in training next year. This is a considerable increase over the number he raced during 1903, and is an indication of his renewed interest in the sport he has so long been identified with. The horses are at his place in Holmdel, N. J., and while Mr. Gideon has not visited his farm since the close of the racing season, he has had reports that all of the horses are in excellent condition. In the lot that will be prepared for the coming season there are a number of yearlings, and the "navy blue" will be seen in most of the important stakes for two-year-olds.

Capt. S. S. Brown leaves New Orleans for Lexington on Thursday, where he goes with his trainer, Bob Tucker, for a thorough inspection of the yearlings that will sport the cherry with the blue cap next spring and summer. Tucker will return to New Orleans, and remain for the entire meeting, which means that he will not take up the summer division until late in March. During this period of activity he will supervise not alone the doings of the yearlings, but of the older horses that are quartered at Sheepshead Bay. Three times each week he gets reports from his men, and the work at the stables is all done under his direction. Captain Brown will go to Pittsburg for his Christmas dinner, then will go back on his yacht, and spend the best part of the winter at New Orleans, taking short shooting trips with his friends. He has been won over to an enthusiastic view of winter racing. The victory of Safety Light in the highweight handicap has enhanced him much in the estimation of his owner, who already had a high opinion of the son of Lamplighter. Safety Light is certainly a grand looker, and appears to have all the requisites of a good racehorse. Captain Brown was so well pleased with his performance that he has decided to have him prepared for the American Derby.

Word has been received from Hamilton, Canada, that Tip Gallant, the game little cross-country horse, will be back at the races next season. Trainer Sykes was wonderfully successful with the sturdy black son of Top Gallant—Vesper, and it was while being fitted for a stake engagement at Brighton Beach at the midsummer meeting that he broke down. He was nursed along carefully for some time, and there was a hope of sending him to the post in some of the later races in the fall. However, when he was let down for the serious preparation his lameness returned to such an alarming extent that he was thrown out of training. At the time Sykes despaired of ever bringing him to the post again. The latest report from Hamilton is that the leg which filled up is regaining all its strength, and the gelding is taking daily gallops in a manner that gives promise of his training on for the next season. Corkscrew, another of the horses of Thomas Crooks, the Canadian turfman, handled by Sykes, is also at the Hamilton place, and he may give a good account of himself in the season that is to come. This one gave great promise early in the season, but was never brought to a race in the condition he exhibited in his trials through the field.

Joe Scherrer, who a few years ago occupied a front position in the jockey ranks, promises to blossom out as an owner on the metropolitan circuit. Scherrer intends visiting New Orleans this winter, and while he has not yet bought any horses for his contemplated campaign in 1904, he promises to gather a stable that will be thoroughly useful among the best of them.

James McLaughlin received word last Thursday of the death of his two-year-old filly, M. Theo, at Bennings. M. Theo started at Bennings a few days before the close of the meeting, and in the skirmishing at the post was thrown against the fence and a bad gash cut in her side. The wound was treated and the filly was apparently getting along all right. It was believed to be safer to leave her at Bennings when the other horses of the string were shipped to Morris Park. The filly died from blood poisoning as a result of this wound.

There will be no steeplechasing at Jamaica next season. Ever since the building of the course of the Metropolitan Jockey Club the question of whether or not there would be a steeplechase course constructed in the infield has been under discussion. At first it was announced that while it was not possible to have the course for this, the first season of racing over the course, it would surely adorn the field in 1904. This has been confirmed and denied several times, and now there is a positive announcement from President W. H. Reynolds, of the club, that there will be no course.
